

Dear Reader,

A book is a magical thing. Once you open one up and start to read, you can find yourself transported to any place in the world, any time in history, or any realm of fantasy an author can invent or your imagination can envision. The best part is that you can reach the most exciting destinations without ever leaving home.

The Barnes & Noble Summer Reading Program is here to help you on your way, encouraging you to read books of your own choosing and earn a FREE book, simply by following these three easy steps:

1. Read any eight books this summer and record them in this Barnes & Noble Summer Reading Imagination's Destination Journal. Be sure to let us know to whom you would recommend each book, and why.
2. Bring your completed journal to a Barnes & Noble store between May 24th and September 6th, 2011.
3. Choose your FREE reading adventure from the book list featured on the back of the journal.

Estimado lector:

Un libro es algo mágico. Una vez que abrimos uno y empezamos a leerlo, nos podemos transportar a cualquier lugar del mundo, a cualquier época de la historia o a cualquier ámbito de la fantasía que un autor pueda inventar o que la imaginación pueda concebir. Lo mejor de todo es que se puede llegar a los destinos más emocionantes sin jamás salir de casa.

El Programa de Lectura de Verano de Barnes & Noble fue creado para ayudarte en tu camino, alentarte a leer libros escogidos por ti y a ganar un libro GRATIS, con solo seguir los siguientes tres pasos sencillos:

1. Lee cualesquiera ocho libros este verano y anótalos en este Diario de Destinos de la Imaginación de Lectura de Verano de Barnes & Noble. Asegúrate de decirnos a quién le recomendarías cada libro, y por qué.
2. Lleva tu diario completado a una librería Barnes & Noble entre el 24 de mayo y el 6 de septiembre de 2011.
3. Escoge tu aventura de lectura GRATIS entre la lista de libros que aparece al reverso del diario.

ACTIVITY 1

Find Your Favorites

Identifying your favorite authors and illustrators is an important part of exploring the world of books. Answer the questions below to explain why you like the work of your favorite writers and artists.

1. Who is your favorite author or illustrator?

2. What makes him or her your favorite?

3. What was the first book you read by this person?

4. Who recommended this book or read it to you?

5. Who would you recommend this book to and why?

6. What other books have you read by your favorite author or illustrator?

7. Can you always identify this person's art or writing style?

8. If you can, what makes it so easy to recognize?

9. Does anything else you've read share similar qualities?

10. Is there a story or subject that you would like this person to explore?

While all books can nourish your imagination, it's important to understand the difference between fiction and non-fiction. Fiction is a story invented by the writer. It can include real people and events, but the story is made up. Non-fiction is based entirely on factual information.

ACTIVITY 3

Playing Roles

Whether a book is fiction or non-fiction, reading allows us to imagine ourselves in the roles played by other people, whether they're historical figures or invented characters. List five characters or people you've read about who have captured your imagination, and describe one way in which each is like you, and one way in which each is different.

ACTIVITY 4

Realms of Imagination

Reading can lead us to all sorts of destinations, both actual and invented. Use the space below to plan your ideal summer vacation as a map, mixing elements of your real life (such as playgrounds, beaches, or get-togethers with friends and relatives) with places you like to visit when you read, such as the past, distant countries, or realms of fantasy. Draw a circle around the destinations you'd most like to spend time in this summer, and illustrate how you might get there: by car, bus, train, plane—or book!
